Response: And also with you.

Story Cafe

This week, children across the school celebrated National Storytelling Week. Miss Cross launched Storytelling Week in Collective Worship and on Thursday we were lucky to have Open the Book join us, where Year 6 wowed us with their acting skills! The children loved our Thrive Story Cafes where they participated in activities thinking about friendships, fears, worries and much more.

Breakfast Club Parking

If you are dropping your child off at Breakfast Club and are using the front car park, please be considerate of staff needing to park. It is becoming increasingly more difficult for staff to park as many spaces are taken up by parents leaving their cars to drop their child/ren off.

Donations

We are looking for teaspoons for school as these can have many different uses. If you have a surplus supply of teaspoons and wish to donate them to us then we would be extremely grateful.
