Holocaust

Today, Year 6 children visited St Gregory's Church to take part in a service of remembrance for all the people that lost their lives during the Holocaust. Rev. Sue Nutt led the service and some Year 6 pupils were able to share readings and prayers. It was an extremely heartfelt service.

Chinese New Year

Hedgehogs celebrated Chinese New Year on Monday with a fully immersive day. The children learnt about the story of the Chinese Zodiac, how to use chopsticks and how to write some Chinese characters. We made our own dragon masks, learnt to dragon dance and designed and made our own class dragon. The children had the chance to make lucky red envelopes and were excited to discover how lucky they were when they received a penny inside! At the end of the day, Evie's mum came in to visit Hedgehogs and taught us how to say 'hello', 'goodbye' and how to count to 10 in Mandarin. Thank you, Mrs Miller!
