Rest in Peace, Your Majesty

We, along with the nation, are deeply saddened by the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Yesterday, our day started with Collective Worship to give thanks for the incredible service, compassion and inspiration from Her Majesty with a very simple explanation of Her Majesty's death along with known changes, such as the Prince of Wales now becoming King Charles III.

We know this is a historic period of change where we will all be experiencing differing emotions and that the children, that all of us, will react in different ways to what has happened – and that is okay.

I would like to reassure you that we are aware of the range of emotions that there may be in school and that we will do all we can to listen to the children with care and understanding, and to answer questions with sensitivity and age appropriate honesty.

Over the next week or so we will share information about how we plan to commemorate and celebrate the remarkable life of Her Majesty. We know that children will have lots of ideas, which we look forward to hearing.

If there is anything we can do to support you or your children during this time please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Book of Condolence

There is a book of condolence for HM Queen Elizabeth II in St. Gregory's Church, Barnham. Please do feel free to sign it and light a candle.

Next week we are celebrating 'Roald Dahl' day! Roald Dahl is an incredible author who has written an array of wonderful books that we all know and love, including 'Matilda', 'James and the Giant Peach', 'The Twits', 'Charlie and the Chocolate Factory' and so many more.

We want to invite you into your child's classroom on Friday 16th September for a Roald Dahl story cafe, to enjoy listening to a Roald Dahl classic with your child, whilst completing some activities related to his brilliant stories.

Classroom doors will open from 2:30pm until the end of the school day.

If your child is in Hedgehog, Mole, Badger or Fox Class please enter school via the side door on the front playground. If your child is in Squirrel or Otter Class please come into school via the front office.

We look forward to sharing our Roald Dahl story time with you!

Communicating Changes

We plan our menus well in advance, please be aware that we have experienced shortage in some supplies more recently and this has resulted in last minute menu changes. We will communicate any changes to you as early as possible.

Inevitably, with the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II there may be some changes to events or an additional bank holiday, again we will communicate these with you via Parentmail at the earliest opportunity.
