the sheep of his pasture.

Historical Art

Artist Nicola Marray-Woods joined the school via Zoom to share top tips for sketching. She also shared a video that she had prepared to show how she draws portraits. Inspired, the children set about producing their own art work, which Nicola is looking forward to recreating in the form of a giant timeline to be located on the wall outside Squirrels' classroom. We look forward to a grand unveiling ceremony in the summer.

We know that over the last couple of years it has been difficult to come into school, as a result of this there may be staff members that you have never met! Each week a different staff member will be introducing themselves and telling you a little bit about them! We really hope that this helps you to put a face to a name and learn all about the amazing Team Barnham staff.

Meet...Miss Cross

I am Miss Cross and I teach Squirrel Class, Year 5, and I am Barnham's reading lead. As reading lead, I am sure you can imagine I absolutely adore reading, especially children's books! At the weekends you will find me snuggled up with a book, out for dinner with my friends or going to see a musical. I enjoy singing and dancing and go to dance classes every week in the evenings.

Did you know?

One of my favourite subjects is Geography and that's what I studied at University!

Did you know?

My all-time favourite thing to do is to go on holiday and explore new places! This Summer I am looking forward to going to Mexico for some much needed sunshine!

Egg-cellent!

This week, Otters have been deepening their understanding of Hinduism. They linked their RE to their PSHE learning and talked about how we should care for each other and the world around us. Otters were given the challenge to look after their new 'egg friends' for 24 hours and to keep them safe and happy. We all loved seeing the egg-cellent new faces, which joined us in Otter Class this week!
