Tree – rific!

Tree decorating! Children have been super busy decorating our school Christmas tree this week. The tree has brightened up our hall and has brought in festive cheer for everyone. A big thank you to Swaffham Christmas Trees for their kind donation. Check out their facebook page!

If you need a Christmas tree, please do visit Swaffham Christmas Trees, who are based outside Tilly's Teamrooms in Brandon – any size tree £25

Christmas Cards

This year, due to uncertain times, we have decided not to open our Christmas card postbox. We will, however, all have the chance in our classes to wish everyone a happy Christmas. Please do not let your child bring Christmas cards into school.

Lucky Bake Raffle

This week's winners for the Lucky Bake Raffle is

Harry and Ollie!

I hope you enjoy tucking into your cake this weekend 😊

Clubs

The final week for clubs this half term is next week. Airfix Club and Cooking Club, we are working on a date for another session and will be in contact soon.

Barnham Start Time

Just a reminder that our soft start time is from 8:45am to 8:50am – the gates will close at 8:50am. If you arrive after this time then you will need to sign in via reception. Please give yourself plenty of time to arrive at school so not to rush and be vigilant in the village hall car park so everyone remains safe.

Masks

Please make sure that masks are worn on the school premises, including the playground. This is a request from Suffolk County Council.

Amazon Smile

The PTA have been super busy raising funds to help towards the cost of our EYFS/KS1 outdoor transformation project and we have been busy applying for grants in school.

There is one way simple and cost free way you can help us towards meeting the costs of this exciting project.

Please visit <https://smile.amazon.co.uk/> and register to support Friends of Barnham School. It doesn't cost a penny and is the same Amazon site as usual – just shop in your usual way!
