Fantastic Foxes

Foxes have been looking at the book 'Iron man', by Ted Hughes. They have used this book to inspire their artwork as well as role playing characters and written some excellent letters as the farmer. What an amazing job they have done too!

Well done, Foxes!

Moles' Marvellous Maths!

Moles have been working extra hard in Maths this week. They have been recapping their existing knowledge of place value. Moles even took their learning outside of the classroom and rather than use their books, they used the playground, and they swapped their pencils for chalk! What a great way to spend a Maths lesson and make the most of what little sunshine we are getting whilst still learning!

Well done, Moles, we can't wait to see what else you get up to!

Barnham's Bee and Butterfly Garden

A couple of weeks ago the children were involved in designing our Bee and Butterfly garden for the grassed area outside Mole, Badger and Fox classes. They had some amazing ideas that we have collated together. Mrs Gower drew our final design and now the groundwork has now started, and it is already taking shape!

Stay tuned for more updates in the coming weeks.
